Citation of Dr Lilly George

Dr. Lilly George is a basic thinker, a creative genius, a lady of substance, and a visionary in action, is the Founder Managing Director of Shalom Hills Group of Schools in Gurgaon.

Deeply affected by the social and economic disparities in our public arena, she has championed and supported many other charitable projects like the one for the uplift of rag pickers and street children and self help groups. She also started Shalomalaya, the social service centre, for taking care of the needy and less privileged children.

As Patron of Delhi Malayalee Association, the premier socio-cultural organization of Delhi representing over a million keralites living in Delhi, she genuinely served the organization and the community in particular, in various ways. She also served as Principal Advisor (Projects) of the Cultural and Educational Center of the DMA in New Delhi.
